Champagne Boizel

In 1831, a young Auguste Boizel married Julie Martin, a descendant of a long line of winegrowers established in Aÿ since the 16th century, and created a revolutionary House for the times, Boizel-Martin promoting both of their names. For 800 francs, they bought a site in 1853 in Epernay and began the digging of their cellars in the chalky slopes in 1858, which would also become their family home. Five generations later, Florent and Lionel have begun to take the reigns and lead the charge of their family's heritage. These wines are born of the chalk laden soil and fickle climate of Epernay and harness the dedication of winemaking passed down for almost 200 years. We are very excited to showcase a varied lineup of their spectacular wines!

Rosé NV $130

A very crisp and delicate rosé that begins with notes of cranberries and cherry blossom but carries through with dried apricots and red apple skin from the balance of chardonnay in the wine. When it comes time to blend, the addition of a small proportion of Pinot Noir from Champagne's best terroirs for red wines – Cumières and Les Riceys – gives the wine its beautiful color and subtle aromas of alpine strawberries and Rainier cherries.

Blanc de Blancs NV $160

A blend of chardonnay from Premier and Grand Cru vineyards from the Côte des Blancs where each Cru adds a special attribute. This is a classic and pure Blanc de Blancs; mineral focused with kaffir lime leaf, white floral and lemon peel aromas balanced with flavors of crisp green apple and marcona almonds and a long, lime peel and nectarine driven finish.

Ultimé, Extra Brut NV $188

Predominantly pinot noir and chardonnay with a touch of pinot meunier, this wine has no dosage, or sweetener, added. Although younger extra brut styles can come off as acerbic and bitter, after 6-8 years of aging on the lees this wine has developed amazing depth of flavor that is enhanced by Meyer lemon curd and pastry crust aroma that remains on the palate.

Grand Vintage 2007 $200

Single vintage Champagne is one of the rarest wines in the world, and this one sings with white peach, Bosc pear and roasted green apples. After 7 years in the bottle and a small percentage of the wine being aged in oak, the texture is supple yet nuanced, balancing the toasty flavors of almond skin and biscuits with a light orange blossom and dried quince aroma.

Joyau de France 2000 $315

The 'Tête de Cuvée,' or highest bottling of the house, the Joyau is aged for 12 years on the lees and has 10% of the base aged in small oak barrels. There is a beautiful nose of toasted hazelnuts and pineapple that belies the acidity and complexity on the palate. This is a truly vinous wine, with amazing texture and an incredibly long, silky finish. It opens and evolves in the glass over time and shows notes of lemon verbena and persimmon mingled with ripe red apple.
